What happened here
changed the world.

CFC #22409

Feb. 1, 1960

GREENSBORO, N.C.

Sit-In Landmark

On Feb. 1, 1960, four black college freshmen sat down at the F.W. Woolworth's "whites only" lunch counter in Greensboro and challenged the Jim Crow institution of racial segregation in public facilities. Their brave actions ignited a Movement that changed a nation and continues to inspire the world.
